

Colorado State Catholic Daughters of the Americas Board does not encourage or promote the use of Facebook. If your Court chooses to do so, these guidelines must be followed.

Facebook Guidelines

1. Facebook account is only for the benefit of the Court, no personal gain.
2. Public to view only/Closed account - only members can post or comment.
3. Meetings: Time – Date – Location
4. Officers Contact info – Email addresses only
5. Calendars – Locations, dates, times
6. Approval of posts and comments – Nothing proprietary is placed on social media - No rosters, minutes, by-laws, Standing Rules, Treasurer's Reports, etc. – no airing of problems within the Court, no names of members who are overdue on dues, etc. – no dirty laundry.
7. No comments on any legislative issues.
8. Personal safety & protection -
 - A. No personal information shown, i.e. addresses, phone numbers.
 - i. No names or email addresses unless permission has been given.
 - B. Pictures of activities are okay, provided you have a signed release. (Exception – Court Banner or Unity & Charity Banner)
9. Any photos of children or JCDA must have a parent sign the photo release.
10. Church info can be given if approved by the Parish Priest (address, phone).
11. Use Profanity filters.
12. Limited access granted by Administrators.